

中国国家留学基金管理委员会 CHINA SCHOLARSHIP COUNCIL

10 July 2025

Dear Professor Damiano Spina

It is a great honor to inform you that Mr./Ms. Kaixia Ji, standing out from the competition, has been granted "the 2024 Chinese Government Award for Outstanding Self-Financed Students Abroad" by China Scholarship Council.

This award, starting in 2003, was founded by the Chinese government with the purpose of rewarding the academic excellence of self-financed Chinese students studying overseas. Only those with outstanding performance in their PhD studies or post-doctoral research will be considered by the award selection panel and no more than 650 young talents will be granted the award each year all over the world.

On behalf of the China Scholarship Council, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your full support and conscientious supervision, which have contributed to his/her remarkable academic achievements. I would highly appreciate your continuous attention to his/her academic research and career development in the future.

Congratulations and best wishes!

Sheng Jianxue
Secretary-General
China Scholarship Council
